NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)	CASE NO. 19-cr-206
)
Plaintiff,)	JUDGE DAN AARON POLSTER
vs.)
)	OPINION AND ORDER RAYMOND RUE,)
Defendant.)

Before the Court is Defendant Raymond Rue’s Amended Motion to Reduce Sentence Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A)(i), Doc #: 214.¹ For the following reasons, Rue’s Motion is DENIED.

I. Background

Rue is serving a 60-month sentence for his conviction of conspiracy to distribute cocaine and cocaine base in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846. Doc #: 147. He is currently held at Federal Correctional Institute Morgantown (“FCI Morgantown”) and has an expected release date of July 14, 2023. Rue now asks the Court for compassionate release under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A) based on concerns of contracting COVID-19 while in FCI Morgantown. Doc #: 214.

II. Discussion

a. Exhaustion

A court may consider a motion for sentence modification upon:

¹ While captioned as an amended motion, no prior motion for sentence reduction was filed.

[M]otion of the defendant after the defendant has fully exhausted all administrative rights to appeal a failure of the Bureau of Prisons to bring a motion on the defendant's behalf or the lapse of 30 days from the receipt of such a request by the warden of the defendant's facility, whichever is earlier . . .

18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A).

The Warden of FCI Morgantown received Rue's request on June 17, 2020. Doc #: 214-3. Because more than 30 days have passed since the Warden received Rue's request, Rue has satisfied the exhaustion requirement. See United States v. Alam, 960 F.3d 831, 836 (6th Cir. 2020).

b. Sentence Modification

Under § 3582(c)(1)(A)(i), before granting a sentence modification a court must find: (1) extraordinary and compelling reasons warrant a sentence modification; (2) the defendant is not a danger to the safety of any other person or the community; and (3) the reduction is appropriate considering the § 3553(a) factors. United States v. Hardin, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 90855, at *5 (N.D. Ohio May 21, 2020).

1. Extraordinary and Compelling Reasons

Extraordinary and compelling reasons for sentence modification exist under four categories set forth at U.S.S.G. § 1B1.13 Application Note 1. Here, the only relevant category is the fourth category, labeled "other reasons." Id. at *8. To determine whether other reasons warrant sentence modification, the Court considers whether: (1) the defendant is at high risk of having grave complications should he contract COVID-19, and (2) the prison where the defendant resides has a severe COVID-19 outbreak. Id.

Rue has asthma and hypertension. Doc #: 214 at 3. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (“CDC”) acknowledges that moderate-to-severe asthma and hypertension might put a person at increased risk of severe illness from COVID-19.²

However, FCI Morgantown is not experiencing a severe COVID-19 outbreak. Only two people within FCI Morgantown have tested positive for COVID-19 – both staff members who have since recovered.³ Accordingly, Rue has not shown extraordinary and compelling reasons warrant a sentence modification.

2. Danger to the Safety of any Other Person or the Community & Section 3553(a) Factors

Because Rue does not show extraordinary and compelling reasons warrant a sentence modification, the Court does not decide whether he is a danger to the safety of any other person or the community or whether the § 3553(a) factors favor release. The Court acknowledges, however, that the § 3553(a) factors likely do not favor release because Rue has over a year of his sentence remaining.

III. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, Rue Motion, Doc #: 214, is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
